

☀️☀️☀️ Over 20 markets on a heatwave weekend!

the Vintage Market Guide

Hi there,

With the wonderful Brocante de Lutry still fresh in our minds, we head into another market weekend. This time, over 20 events await across Switzerland, from small neighbourhood flea markets to special events that come around only a few times a year.

Basel is especially busy this weekend. Five flea markets are taking place across Saturday and Sunday, four of them on Saturday alone. Our special tip is Letziplunder on Letziplatz, a small, lovingly organised market held just twice a year and brought to life with real heart and personal dedication.

And it is going to be seriously hot. Temperatures well above 30 degrees are expected in Basel on Saturday, and the rest of Switzerland is in for full summer weather too. If you are heading out treasure hunting, start as early as you can, take plenty of water and plan a break in the shade along the way.

An early start pays off in Eastern Switzerland too. On Saturday, the market square in Amriswil will be filled with antiques, rarities, curiosities and classic flea-market finds. It is the final opportunity before the summer break, as the market pauses in July and does not return until mid-August.

On Sunday, the longest day of the year, our third tip takes us to Thun and the Schadau-Märit. Against the beautiful backdrop of Schadaupark, browsing the stalls pairs perfectly with a summer outing.

Good to know for Zurich: the Zurich Pride demonstration takes place on Saturday. The flea markets will run as usual, but the city is likely to be very busy, so factor that into your plans for the day.

TVMG - Market Diaries

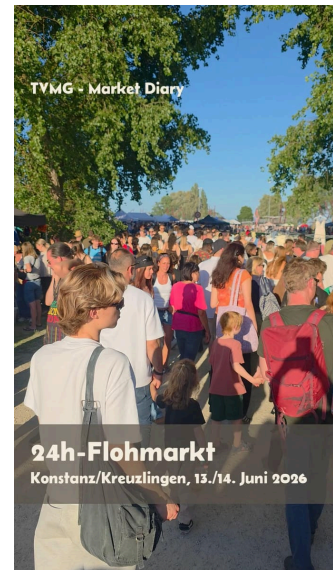

Brocante de Lutry: We spent Friday on the quays at Lutry, and it more than lived up to the setting. Nearly 70 professional dealers, beautifully staged antiques and ceramics right on Lake Geneva, and even a few Daum and Gallé pieces among the stalls.

24h-Flohmarkt Konstanz/Kreuzlingen: one flea market, two countries and 24 hours without a break. In Konstanz and Kreuzlingen the browsing does not stop at sunset, it carries on through the night, with torches between the stalls and Lake Constance right beside you. By the time we arrived early on Saturday evening, the market was already in full swing. It was hot, crowded and cheerful: families, pushchairs, music, street food and fairground rides in the background.

You may remember that, a few weeks ago, we asked you to vote on the name of our Virtual Scout on WhatsApp. The result is in: Mira. She is a virtual concierge who helps you find flea markets and brocantes near you, directly inside WhatsApp, with no app to download and no sign-up required.

We have been building her behind the scenes over the past few weeks, and we are now just days away from launching the first version.

Before Mira goes live, we are looking for a small group of curious testers to be among the first to try her and tell us honestly what works and what still needs improvement. To be one of them, simply reply to this email and we will send you all the details.

Until next week,
