

The break is over, the flea markets are back

the Vintage Market Guide

Hi there,

Last weekend the choice was unusually small because of 1 August: three flea markets on the Saturday, four on the Sunday! This weekend the calendar is noticeably fuller again.

There is a simple reason why Saturday in particular has so many markets: four markets that normally fall on the first Saturday of the month were moved from 1 to 8 August. As a result, the Flohmarkt am Gallusplatz in St. Gallen, the Floh- und Gänggalimarkt in Chur, the Flohmarkt Aarau, and the Flohmarkt im Mosergarten in Schaffhausen all fall on the same day. The Kanzlei-Flohmarkt in Zurich is on again too. The Flohmarkt am Bürkliplatz, on the other hand, stays closed for a second weekend, this time because of the Street Parade.

Alongside them, two markets in the calendar come round only once a year, and one of them starts on the Friday already: in Estavayer-le-Lac the three-day Open-Air-Brocante stretches through the whole old town, along the Grand-Rue and the Rue du Musée and on under the arcades at the Place de l'Église.

On Saturday the beautiful Saaner Brocante in the Obersimmental joins in, with around 120 stalls from 9 am to 5 pm.

And if you are heading to Estavayer on Saturday, you can pair up two brocantes in one trip: the Kunsth Handwerk-Brocante in Murten is only about 25 minutes away and stays open until 6 pm!

Here are your markets for this weekend:

Mira, your scout on WhatsApp

In case you have not met her yet: Mira is our scout on WhatsApp. You tell her which town or region you are interested in, and she tells you which markets are on there. No account, no extra app, just a message.

The easiest way is to scan the QR code with your phone camera. Or tap the link directly: wa.me/41784483687. Ask Mira, for example, which markets are on in eastern Switzerland this Saturday.

Mira keeps learning as she goes, and your questions help her most of all. Should she ever fail to find something or misunderstand you, simply reply to this email and tell us about it. We read every piece of feedback.

Until next week,
