

 Four days of brocante in Geneva, Mendrisio and 36 more markets this weekend

the Vintage Market Guide

Hi there,

38 markets are on the calendar this week, and this time the weekend starts on Thursday for brocante and flea market fans! 🎉

The Grande Foire à la Brocante de Genève opens it: four days of professional brocante on the Quai du Mont-Blanc, with a view of the Jet d'Eau, daily from 10 to 19. The Geneva brocante is already in its fourth year and brings together antiques, brocante and one of the most beautiful settings on Lake Geneva!

On Sunday, Ticino follows with the Antiquitätenmesse Mendrisio, one of the great highlights of the weekend. For the autumn edition the historic centre turns into one big antiques market: over 10,000 visitors come every year, when exhibitors from Switzerland and Italy bring silver, porcelain, vinyl, Ticino painting of the 19th and 20th centuries, design, toys and much more into the lanes.

In the Zurich region the Strassenflohmarkt Rafz brings around 70 private stalls into the village centre - a proper flea market treat. And in Zurich-Oerlikon the Flohmi Züri-Nord celebrates its premiere at the Labör.

In the canton of Fribourg the Brocante de Misery takes place on Saturday and Sunday, for the 20th time already. Some of the stalls are in the gym hall, the rest outside on the Place du Centre.

The Basel region is busy too: on Saturday the wonderful Letziplunder takes place, and a new market joins at the Stücki Park. On Sunday the Walzwerkflohmi follows in Münchenstein, held only once a year on the Walzwerk site.

Plenty of choice, great finds ahead - this weekend can only be fantastic!

Further down you will find, as always, all 38 markets from Thursday to Sunday, sorted by region.

TVMG - Market Diaries

Brocante de Saignelégier – Salon design et vintage: Horses on every poster, right down to the name of the hall: in Saignelégier you know at once where you are. On Friday afternoon the 50th brocante opened in the Halle du Marché-Concours, and shortly after opening the hall was already full, with carefully set-up stands, plenty of ceramics, the stables next door, old-timers outside and a crêpe stand we went back to twice.

New on the site: market pages and the Annual Calendar

Announced last week, online now: every market in the Vintage Market Guide now has its own overview page - not the single edition, but the market itself! There you will find the next dates, the usual opening hours, the map and the organiser, plus the practical details. The rhythm of the market becomes visible too, whether weekly, monthly or just once a year. As an example: the new page of the Grande Foire à la Brocante de Genève.

And the guide keeps growing, new as well is the Annual Calendar: the big brocantes, antiques fairs and flea markets of Switzerland at a glance, month by month. The markets that take place only once or twice a year are the ones you miss most easily. That is why you will already find the whole of 2026 there, plus every 2027 date the organisers have already published and confirmed. And of course: all dates are always up to date.

If something is missing on a market page, you spot a mistake, or an important market is missing from the Annual Calendar, simply reply to this email. We read every reply.

Until next week,

Your Vintage Market Guide Team
